Baltimore, MD – The B&O Railroad Museum was recently named on May 21, 2014 as one of TripAdvisor’s 2014 Certificate of Excellence award recipients. TripAdvisor, the world’s largest travel site, uses a proprietary algorithm to determine the honorees that takes into account reviews ratings. Businesses must maintain an overall TripAdvisor bubble rating of at least four out of five. Volume and recency of reviews, as well as a business’ tenure and popularity ranking are also factored in the algorithm. Marc Charron, president of TripAdvisor for Business stated, “The Certificate of Excellence award gives top performing establishments around the world the recognition they deserve, based on feedback from those who matter most - their customers.”

Courtney Wilson, executive director of the B&O Railroad Museum, commented “It truly is an honor for the museum to receive this award since it spotlights a high standard of customer service and reaches an audience all over the world.”

About the B&O Railroad Museum
The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Museum, an affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution, is dedicated to the preservation and interpretation of American railroading and its impact on American society, culture, and economy. The Museum is home to the oldest, most important and comprehensive collection of American railroad artifacts in the world including an unparalleled roster of 19th and 20th century railroad equipment. The 40-acre historic site is regarded as the birthplace of American railroading and includes the 1851 Mt. Clare Station, the 1884 Baldwin Roundhouse, and first mile of commercial railroad track in America.
