

Taking a Field Trip at the B&O Railroad Museum

A Social Narrative for Teens & Adults

Your group is going on a field trip to the B&O Railroad Museum!

To get to the museum your group may take a bus or walk. When you arrive you will enter through a large gate into the parking lot.

A staff member at the museum will meet you group outside to help you.

The museum staff member will bring you into the Roundhouse for an introduction. They will tell you your schedule and important safety information.

Your group will be participating in some special activities! You can ask your teacher what activities will be on your schedule.

You might be eating lunch at the museum too. You can ask your teacher if you need to bring lunch.

After you finish your activities you will have time to explore the museum. There are many galleries about different railroad topics.

When you finish exploring it will be time to leave the museum.
